Successful Learning for All Students

Designing Universally Accessible Courses

Monday, August 17, 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

Join this critically important seminar presented by CRTLE, the Student Access & Resource Center (formerly OSD), the Center for Distance Education (CDE), and one of our own UTA students to build awareness and understanding on promoting successful learning for all students. Learn the UTA procedures to accommodate students as per ADA compliance, as well as important techniques to ensure your online, hybrid, and on campus courses provide universally equitable learning experiences for all.

Presented by:

Destiny Ortega, Student Intern, Disability Studies with CRTLE
Cindy Lowery, Director, Student Access & Resource Center (formerly OSD)
Joseph Rutledge, Manager Global Education Outreach, Center for Distance Education
