TOMORROW!

Ensuring All Students Can Learn:
Electronic and Physical Accessibility in Your Courses

Tuesday, November 19
11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Trinity Hall, Room 105 or via Microsoft Teams

This interactive session will be the first of several planned open discussions CRTLE will host through the year on strategies and techniques for making your Canvas courses and classroom/laboratory spaces accessible. This session and those to come will include invited speakers from across campus who will brief the faculty on laws governing accessibility, on how to ensure electronic material and physical spaces are accessible, and on how faculty are to respond to accommodations students provide to faculty from the SAR Center. Lunch will be provided for in-person attendees.

SEP Student Experience PROJECT

Join us for the Spring!

Student Experience Project

Division of Student Success and CRTLE Collaborative
Community of Practice Fellows Program

Become a Student Experience Project (SEP) Fellow by joining this community of practice focusing on deliberate, mindful integration of research-based, positive student success elements into teaching. The SEP community of practice, funded through a grant from UT System, provides support for professional learning communities to emphasize student success strategies in their courses, for example:

- Growth Mindset
- Resilience
- Self-Efficacy
- Trust
- Psychological Safety

Deadline to apply is DECEMBER 3RD!
