CRTLE Syllabus Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) Project

Write Effective SLOs and Align with Course Activities and Assessments

Thursday, October 17

10:00 am - 11:30 am

Trinity Hall, Room 105 or via Microsoft Teams

Join us as we continue the CRTLE SLO project and learn to write sound SLOs aligned with course activities and assessments. Doing so meets the criteria of HB 2504, THECB, the UT System, and SACSCOC accreditation, and provides students with the clarity and framework to support their learning success.

Teaching to an AI Generation

Session Open to Faculty, Staff, and Graduate Students

Wednesday, October 23

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Trinity Hall, Room 105 or via Microsoft Teams

OR

Friday, October 25

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Microsoft Teams Only

Nearly all students in today's college classrooms grew up connected to the internet, are true digital natives, and have a unique mindset to technology and learning. This session will discuss educational strategies and adjustments to teaching practices to help this generation of learners navigate the information they receive, critically think, and identify misinformation they may obtain with AI platforms. The session will be repeated Wednesday and Friday; select the session that fits your schedule.
