

Room Conditions

The condition of all event spaces, meeting rooms, and multi-use facilities in Brazos Park, Commons, and University Center are checked prior to and immediately following events. The expectation is that event spaces will be left in generally the same state they were in prior to an event taking place. Misuse, damage, or excessive mess in the facilities will result in charges being assessed to the user of said space.