

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Welcome to the Cross Timbers Government Procurement Contracting Conference—an unparalleled platform designed to ignite the potential of small businesses in the dynamic landscape of government contracting. This conference is not just an event; it's a transformative experience crafted to empower, educate, and elevate your entrepreneurial journey.

Immerse yourself in an atmosphere of growth as industry leaders, government officials, and successful entrepreneurs converge to share their expertise. Our conference goes beyond the ordinary, offering a curated blend of workshops, panel discussions, and interactive sessions tailored to the specific challenges and opportunities faced by small businesses in North and East Texas.

Discover the keys to success in government procurement, learn to navigate intricate processes, and gain insights into the latest industry trends. Engage with experienced leaders who have navigated the complexities of contracting, and connect with fellow entrepreneurs to foster collaborations of teaming and joint ventures that will shape the future of your business.

At the Cross Timbers GPC, we believe in the transformative power of knowledge, networking, and innovation. Join us on this exciting journey where your business aspirations meet boundless opportunities and where the Texas small business community unites for growth and prosperity. Your success story begins here!
