In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), U.S.C. 1232, University policy prohibits the release, to third parties, of information contained in a student's educational records without the express written consent of the student. The student must provide a signed and dated written consent to disclose personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except as provided in 99.31. The written consent must:

(1) Specify the records that may be disclosed;

(2) State the purpose of the disclosure; and

(3) Identify the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.
